

Multicultural Youth SA Inc (MYSA) Leadership Training Workshops April, May & June 2005

DATE	TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER	VENUE
April 21	7pm	Public Speaking: How to Overcome Fear and Not Bore People!	Allan McFarlane Allan is the Founding Principal of a small boutique firm of business advisors currently employing people from Iraq, Greece, Vietnam and Australia. Allan has been involved in youth leadership for many years, traveling the world working with a diverse range of young people including street kids and those with disabilities. Allan was in his own words "surprisingly" mentioned in the Order of Australia Awards some years back.	MYSA, Shop 9, Millers Arcade, 28 Hindley Street, Adelaide
May 5	7pm	How to Inspire and Motivate Young People to Volunteer	Luisa Schopman Luisa is employed as the Project Officer for CO.AS.IT. (SA), a collaborative peak body for the Italian community. Luisa's work experience and expertise is in community development, volunteer management and public relations. She is an active volunteer in the community currently through the Board of Management for the Blind Welfare Association and previously at Lifeline and several aged care facilities.	MYSA, Shop 9, Millers Arcade, 28 Hindley Street, Adelaide
May 19	7pm	How to be Taken Seriously	Hon Nick Xenophon MLC Nick was elected to the Legislative Council in SA in 1997 on a "No Pokies" platform and has also spoken out on a number of other socially significant issues spanning a range of portfolios, including essential services, the environment, consumer rights, taxation and all forms of gambling.	MYSA, Shop 9, Millers Arcade, 28 Hindley Street, Adelaide
June 2	7pm	Young People on Boards and Committees	Panel Carmen Garcia, Chairperson Multicultural Youth SA; Dale Foody, Chairperson, Minister's Youth Council; and Bonney Corbin, Chairperson, South Australian Young Planners, A Division of the Planning Institute of SA.	MYSA, Shop 9, Millers Arcade, 28 Hindley Street, Adelaide

RSVP by April 14 to: helena@mysa.com.au or telephone: 8212 0085