Multicultural Youth Development Fund – Round 3 Open

The South Australian Multicultural Youth Development Fund is funded by the Department for Families and Communities and administered by Multicultural Youth SA Inc (MYSA). This funding is for Youth and Community Groups to access one-off funding for youth development and youth capacity building projects for multicultural young people from new and emerging communities.

Successful groups will also receive project support including free project management training to develop work plans and project budgets. This free project training will assist groups to gain project management experience and increase skills to apply for future funding through other grants schemes.

Grants of up to $7,000.00 are available. Please visit MYSA's website www.mysa.com.au for more information and to download the Funding Guidelines and Expression of Interest form.

Information Session:

An information session will be held for interested youth and community groups to find out more about the fund and how to secure a Partner Agency. Applicants can also make an appointment with MYSA's Grants Officer to assist them and their partner agency to complete an Expression of Interest form.
